The Alumni Membership Program

The Alumni Membership Program at The RISD Museum is a new opportunity to show your support for Rhode Island School of Design. Participation in the Membership Program offers special alumni benefits; plus, you will be contributing to the Museum's Alumni Art Acquisition Fund.

It is truly remarkable that RISD's College and Museum have adapted to 125 years of changing times while preserving their original joint mission – teaching art and design and teaching through display and conservation.

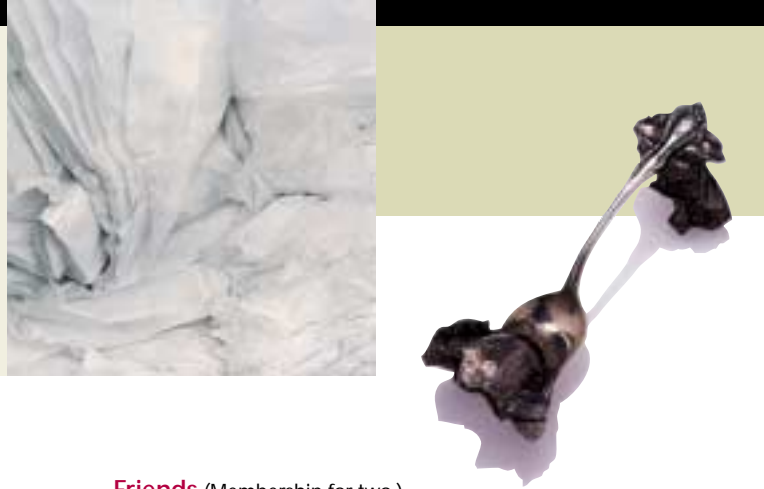

Over the years, the College and the Museum have distinguished themselves through a tradition of accomplishment and achievement. RISD's eighteen thousand alumni hold prominent positions in their respective fields worldwide. The Museum's collection has grown to nearly eighty thousand artworks and has been acclaimed nationally and internationally.

Defining the Future

Today, with renewed emphasis on contemporary art, the Museum continues to add to its collection through various endowed purchase funds, including the Alumni Art Acquisition Fund.

As a student you became acquainted with the Museum's permanent collection of objects from virtually every culture, period, and genre. By becoming a RISD Museum alumni member, you can continue to share in the Museum's future, while insuring that the work of RISD alumni becomes part of the Museum's growing permanent collection.

Alumni Museum members enjoy many special benefits and privileges. Foremost, twenty percent of the cost of each membership goes directly into the Museum's Alumni Art Acquisition Fund for the purchase of art by RISD graduates.
