

RISD@LinkedIn

join fellow risd alumni on this career building site

<http://www.linkedin.com/e/gis/3809/6CE0C125D1B0>

The network is a good way to:

1. stay connected to fellow RISD alumni
2. expand your network and resources
3. share new job openings
4. recruit alumni talent
5. offer or receive advice and support

Moving from one city to another?
Look for alumni in your new area.

Changing careers?
Look for alumni working in that discipline.

Looking for a new way to stay connected?

RISD alumni and RISD's Career Services Office are using LinkedIn as a professional way to stay in touch online.

At LinkedIn you can reach out to the RISD alumni community and join some of RISD's 22,000 alumni practicing their craft around the world. The LinkedIn RISD group helps alumni reconnect, fosters professional and artistic relationships, and creates career opportunities.

Advantages we've found:

1. A higher level of control over your connections
2. You determine the level of interaction
3. Meet RISD people and/or other professionals
5. No spam
6. No fees

Once you join, add your contact and professional information, invite others to link with you, and be sure to add the RISD Alumni icon to your profile and search results (enabled from the your group settings page).

LinkedIn RISD group is administered by Jared Zimmerman (GD 06) and Steve Whitten, RISD Career Services

risd's career services

52 angell street • providence ri • 401-454-6620