A NAME FOR YOURSELF

career resources / resident assistants

September

We'll provide RISD's Resident Assistants with a great overview of our resources so they can guide you to all the opportunities that are available through risd/careers/.

career options / risd by design

Friday, October 9 / Metcalf Auditorium / 4:00 pm

Saturday, October 10 / The Met, Room A / 2:00 pm

Career staff will highlight effective tools to help you discover a broad range of creative markets for jobs and internships. We'll also discuss why businesses (and RISD parents) hire interns and tap RISD talent.

internships / success

Tuesday, October 13 / The Met, Room A / 7:00 pm

Hear from students and recent alumni about their internship successes. You'll learn how to find opportunities and what you need to prepare for them. See examples of resumes, portfolios and internship projects.

internships / find

Thursday, October 15 / The Met, Room A / 7:00 pm

Where are the internships? How do you find them? Discover how to effectively use RISD's database - ArtWorks. Go beyond listings to craft your own internship experience using directories, associations and networking.

resume / build

Tuesday, October 20 / The Met, Room A / 7:00 pm

Bring your laptop. Bring a notepad. By the end of this workshop you'll have a resume draft to use for internships and jobs. We'll walk you through step-by-step and answer all your questions about what to include.

resume / crit

Thursday, October 22 / The Met, Room A / 7:00 pm

You've had your parents and your roommate check your resume; now receive helpful feedback through this group critique and learn what's working and what you need to change. Your resume will be ready to work for you!

collaboration

Friday, October 30 - Monday, November 2

Join 500 arts professionals at the National Arts Marketing Project Conference in Providence. Network with leaders and peers from museums, arts agencies and nonprofits.
