Preferred major:

Freshman Candidates:
Candidates may list a particular department, or, if undecided, Foundation Studies. However, candidates interested in Architecture, Industrial Design, or Interior Architecture must list one of these individual programs.

Transfer Candidates:
Must list a specific department, other than Foundation Studies. Once enrolled, internal transfer to other departments is not permitted in the initial year and is subject to review thereafter.

If you have applied previously as a degree candidate to RISD, state year.

Reapplicants must submit new visual credentials, new writing samples, and transcripts covering academic work not included in transcripts previously submitted.

I am also applying for admission to the Brown/RISD dual degree program.

Dual degree candidates must complete the application process for both colleges and also submit the dual degree supplement.

Please note that the Dual Degree program is only available for freshman applicants and that Architecture is not an eligible major choice.
