120 credits

Advising Resources:

Who's here to help you navigate your academic life?

First Year

EFS Advisor*: helps you with choosing a major, possible concentration directions, academic concerns in your EFS courses

First-Year Academic Advisors: provide extra support in your first-year courses (including around midterm warnings, incompletes, withdrawing from or failing a first-year course), connecting to campus resources, mentoring for First-Generation and Pell-Eligible students

Jen Horwitz, Liberal Arts
jhorwitz@risd.edu
College Building, room 420

Jonathan Sylvia, Studio
jsylvia@risd.edu
Carr House, room 13

Spring of First Year & Fall + WS of Sophomore Year

Liberal Arts Advisor*: helps you with an overview of liberal arts requirements, selecting liberal arts courses, possible concentration directions, academic concerns in your liberal arts courses

Sophomore thru Senior Year

Major Advisor*: helps you with major requirements; selecting courses; exploring career paths, directions, and campus opportunities; academic concerns in your major courses

All Years

Student Success Support: provides extra pathfinding support for students (including processes around academic probation, taking or returning from a leave of absence, connecting to campus resources)

Brittany Goodwin
bgoodwin@risd.edu,
401-454-6204
Carr House, floor 3

Liberal Arts Senior Academic Specialist: helps clarify questions about Liberal Arts credit requirements, transfer credits, and taking non-RISD courses

Gail Hughes,
ghughes@risd.edu,
401-454-6572
Liberal Arts Division Office (College Building, room 418)
Offers walk-in appointments (M-W, 8 am-3 pm) & virtual appointments

Optional

Concentration Advisor (when you declare thru graduation)*: helps you with concentration requirements, selecting concentration courses, exploring career paths and directions

* How do you find who your advisors are throughout your time at RISD?

1 Log onto Workday: click Menu, then Academics.

2 On your dashboard, you will see a chart with your advisors' names, photos, and email addresses.